

THE BIG BLUE UNION.

MARYSVILLE, KANSAS.

Local and Special Notices.

Beef has fallen in price in Marysville.

There are a few deaths from Cholera reported in New York City.

There is an active demand for potatoes in town now. A few loads would sell well.

All those who owe us for this paper are requested to immediately settle up, as we are much in need of money. Don't wait to be dunned again.

Work will commence on the Railroad running west from St Joseph through this place in a few weeks.

The river continues stationary.—Leavenworth Bulletin.

Why don't you give it something to move it?

Several citizens of our county are out on a buffalo hunt. This exciting pastime is a favorite sport of our frontiersmen.

The work on the School house is progressing slowly. In the course of two weeks the rock for the building will all be quarried and delivered on the ground. Seven hundred perch are required for the structure.

204.—Marysville cast two hundred and four votes for issuing bonds, and none against.—This was a big vote for Marysville. Seneca people thought they did well in casting one hundred and fifty votes for. Marysville is ahead.

Messrs. R. O. Wagner, S. Shockley and E. C. Manning have been appointed by the County Board, Commissioner to appraise the school lands of this county. They will proceed soon to appraise all the lands that sale has been petitioned for.

The best place to trade in Atchison is at Gard & Newcomb's. Their stock of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods and Dress Goods is complete.—Their prices are as low as the lowest, and their clerks as polite as the most polite. In purchasing in that city do not fail to call on this popular firm.

Messrs. Swearingen and Hutchinson have returned from up the road. The train that had the 1000 sacks of flour unloaded at Cottonwood and stored their freight there. The train is on its way back. Flour is too cheap at Denver to pay the hauling.

We got the report from pretty reliable authority that senator Pomeroy has sold all his interest in Atchison. The sale was consummated some months ago but has been kept very sly since it transpired. We understand that there is some game in the matter but are not at liberty to report it at present.

Good Sinner Country.—Last fall Mr. Murcheson of this place lost thirteen sheep and heard nothing from them until this spring.—When found they were out on the Little Blue river and away from any settlements. There they had been likely all winter without food or shelter. There the original thirteen were found, having wintered without any assistance, unharmed by wolves, unscathed by storms.

Insulted.—The principal argument used by one of the vigorous opponents of the Bond question, was, "if you commence the construction of another railroad through this section of Kansas it would insult the Irishmen that were now at work on the A. & P. P. railroad."

That was the first time that we ever heard that the building of a railroad insulted an Irishman, or any other man.

We understand that the puritanical County Attorney, W. W. Jerome, in his speech at Blue Rapids accused us and other members from Northern Kansas, of stealing the School Lands of this State to aid in the construction of Railroads. We are not surprised at his assertion when we consider his reputation for veracity, nor startled at his rendering of the law when we contemplate his legal attainments.

Marshall county was out in all its strength last Tuesday. Nearly every voter that was not absent from the county was at the polls. There were only two in Marysville who failed to vote, and about ten in Blue Rapids Township, and only two or three in Vermillion, and about fifteen in Guittards. There were about forty voters absent from the county. Counting the absentees, those that failed to vote and the vote cast, and we have over six hundred voters in the County.

The Tennessee State Senate has passed the franchise bill by a vote of 13 to 6. It had previously passed the House, and is now a law. It disfranchises over nine-tenths of the white people of Tennessee, including all who, in any way, ever participated in the rebellion, or gave aid to the cause of treason. Tennessee is working out her own destiny.

On the 4th inst. both Houses of Congress passed a bill enlarging the State of Nevada by cutting off several thousand square miles from Utah. The delegate from Utah, in the House, protested very violently against it.

Gen. Sickles is appointed Minister to the Hague.

A Great Mistake.

The Burlington Patriot, in noticing the return home of L. M. Ray, Esq., who had been at the Capitol for two or three weeks as a juror of the U. S. District Court, says: "The Squire says that a strong Andy Johnson feeling prevails at the capital. The untrammelled Sovereigns must go to work and pitch overboard the bartering, pap-sucking, State-house politicians."

Now, while we are willing to concede that Mr. M. was perfectly honest in his belief that a "strong Andy Johnson feeling" prevailed here, we do protest against that peculiar mode of expression which tends to mislead the public mind. "A strong Andy Johnson feeling" may exist in the ranks of the democracy, and with a few Republicans; but that the great mass of the Republican Union party in this locality is affected, we are compelled to deny.

The last sentence in the above quotation implies, if it means anything, that our State officers are among those floating along on the veto-speech-making channel of Andy. In that, Mr. Patriot, you are very much mistaken. Our State officers, as we have before, time and again stated, are to a man, (with perhaps one exception—he being absent from the Capitol) squarely with the Congressional majority, and against what they conceive to be the dangerous "policy" of Andy Johnson, and in justice to them we hope the Patriot, and every other paper in the State that has made the same intimation, will correct the erroneous impression.—Topeka Record.

The paper published in Washington called the Constitutional Unionist, got off the following specimen of Unionism, on the 3d inst.

"These men had better beware; they are not a legal Congress, but an unconstitutional body of usurpers. The country feels that the one great error of the President was in his ever recognizing them at all. In their self-imposed rump condition, they had no claim for recognition as an official body from an honest man, or any other branch of the Government. We doubt whether the Supreme Court will ever affirm any of their statistics to be valid. This thing of Congressional fanaticism and treason ought to be done away with. The American Congress now is the fac simile of that rump Parliament which stunk in the nostrils of all good men, and which Cromwell kicked out of doors, and served just right. A little Cromwellian pluck is just the thing needed now, and there are 2,000,000 Democrats at the North who would face that kind of pluck with a good deal of relish just now. The issue should be joined at once."

QUEEN VICTORIA AND THE FENIANS.—A London correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune writes:

An interesting anecdote of the Queen's humanity and attachment to her army has just come to my knowledge. You may have noticed in the news from Ireland the trial of a Sergeant Darragh, for Fenianism, of which he was found guilty and sentenced to be shot. When the warrant was brought to the Queen for signature, her consent was urgently solicited on the grounds of the necessity of making an example, and at length obtained, though she burst into tears in the act of acceding to it. Within an hour afterward she sent for the warrant again and tore it to pieces—and God bless her for it! The act will effect more toward extirpating Fenianism in the ranks—if it exists there—than all the constables, spies, lawyers, judges and hangmen within the fair seas of Britain could do.

Americans are not the only adventurous people. An Englishman named Stamer has just published "Recollections of a Life of Adventures." He landed in Boston from England with six shillings in his pocket; shipped as a green hand on a whaler; left the ship and forfeited his wages; worked his way to Liverpool; entered the English army; left it and joined the French legion; inherited some money and bought a substitute; came to America again; was in Richmond during the war; escaped to New York with a shirt, a tooth brush, and an umbrella; and finally returned to England with all his baggage tied up in a paper parcel.

AN APPEAL FOR THE STARVING.—Judge Wyeth, of Marshall county, Ala., has appealed to the citizens of Cincinnati in behalf of the people of his State. He says:

"I have come here to plead with you for the suffering, starving people of North Alabama. They are literally starving—helpless women and children and infirm men are suffering for the want of bread. The facts are so terrible that they can scarcely be believed, and I feel that the greatest difficulty that I shall have to encounter will be the doubts that will suggest themselves in regard to the truth of my statements."

The Treasury Department estimates that the national income for the present year will reach five hundred millions. The balances at present at the command of the Secretary, from all sources, are believed to be fully one hundred and fifty millions.

Two prominent citizens of Iowa, who went to Texas with the intention of residing there, have returned. They say it is impossible for a Union man to live among the malignant rebels of that State.

The St. Jo. Herald says there are three maiden sisters residing in that county, whose united ages are 204 years. It is generally believed that they will not marry just yet.

Mr. H. J. Raymond, on the floor of the House, spoke strongly in favor of the Congressional scheme of reconstruction. He says the New York Times does not represent his views of the subject.

A Memphis minister thinks it is the duty of the pulpit to pray for Jeff. Davis. The Memphis Republican retorts: "Don't you do it. You pray for the Southern Confederacy and we all know its fate."

PENITENTIARY.—Commissioners, S. S. Ludlum, Wm. Dunlap, and M. R. Dutton, met at the office of Secretary of State on Friday last, and let the work of building the State Penitentiary to E. L. Caldwell, Leavenworth.—Topeka Leader.

HARPER'S

NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

"Unquestionably the Best Sustained Work of the Kind in the World."

CRITICAL NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

It is the foremost Magazine of the day. The fireside never had a more delightful companion, nor the million a more enterprising friend, than Harper's Magazine.—Methodist Protestant, Baltimore.

The most popular monthly in the world.—New York Observer.

We must refer in terms of eulogy, to the high toned and varied excellence of HARPER'S MAGAZINE—a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the American people, and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each number contains fully 144 pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with wood cuts and it combines within itself the racy monthly and more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature.—Tribune's Guide to American Literature, London.

The volumes bound constitute of themselves a library of miscellaneous reading, such as cannot be found in the same compass in any publication that has come under our notice.—Boston Courier.

SUBSCRIPTIONS—1866.

The publishers have perfected a system of mailing by which they can supply the Magazine and Weekly promptly to those who prefer to receive their periodicals directly from the Office of Publication.

The postage on Harper's Magazine is twenty-four cents a year, which must be paid at the subscriber's post office.

TERMS.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.—One year, - - $4 00

An extra copy of either the Magazine or Weekly will be supplied gratis for every club of Five Subscribers, at $4 00 each in one instalment or six copies for $20.

Back Numbers can be supplied at any time. Address HARPER & BROTHERS, Franklin Square, New York.
